To the Voters OF THE CITY OF ANNAPOLIS

Fellow Citizens, The enquiry has been lately frequently made, whether it was my intention to be a candidate to represent the city. That all further conversation on this subject may be put to rest, this method is taken to inform the voters of Annapolis, that I am a candidate. and if elected and my life spared, shall use my best endeavours to represens them faithfully. And as there is no doubt but some of my opponents will use all sorts of means, and make efforts of all descriptions to prevent my election. I have to ask of my fellow citizens to be on their guard against erroneous representations, assuring them, that they will be met, (if made known) promptly and without fear of canvass before the people collected. I shall take no unbecoming steps a-gainst those that are or that hereafter may be candidates My purpose and pretensions have never been disguised. and will be steadily, candid and fear lessly pursued.
